DRE ERWIN | NORTHERN SASKATCHEWAN

Books, photography and a little northern light

A quick guide for schools, libraries and community groups

When the Sky Danced

A picture book for ages 4-8, following Kai and Kokum under the northern lights. Available to order now. Use the current book page for the retail link and free companion resources.

Book information and current ordering link
ISBN: 9798186877226

Free activities you can use today

Explore photography activities for phones or shared cameras, plus drawing options. Sharing photographs is optional. No email signup is required.
dreerwinphoto.com/free-photo-activities

Ask about a visit, session or book quantity

Author readings and Q&A (30-45 minutes), youth photography sessions (60-90 minutes), and online facilitator discussions (about 60 minutes) can be discussed by enquiry. Dates, fees and travel are quoted individually around my nursing schedule.

To make a quote easier, include your organization and community, preferred dates, ages, group size, book quantity, and any access or session needs.

Email: dreerwinphotography@gmail.com
Enquiries: dreerwinphoto.com/schools-libraries

Dre is a nurse, photographer and author working in northern Saskatchewan. He founded the Pinehouse Photography Club and no longer leads it.